Head of Campus Report

The Langhorne Creek Writer's Festival - Young Person's Writing Competition is returning in 2016. The focus this year is on Natural Environments. This will include an open category and Haiku category once again. We will hold a literacy celebration event here again to award our winners on Thursday 29th September. Many schools have already made contact about the competition, so I am expecting a healthy amount of entries once again. Our classes will be working on their entries later in the term. Although the competition doesn't open until June 9th, details can be viewed now via the website at <http://www.langhornecreek.com/events/regional-events/2016-langhorne-creek-writers-festival/>

Jude Harley will finish working here at the end of week 9 this term. After 42 years of work at Strathalbyn and some 25 years at Langhorne Creek, she will transition into retirement. Jude has quietly worked behind the scenes on Fridays, keeping our Library up-to-date and nicely organised. We will acknowledge her efforts later in the term. Plans are in place to have a librarian SSO in place to maintain our library after Jude finishes.

Camp arrangements are coming along. This 'urban experience' promises to be a unique opportunity for our students to sample some of the experiences the city of Adelaide has to offer. We are yet to finalise numbers. If you haven't already communicated intentions of your child's attendance or not, please do that promptly. Once we have final numbers we can finalise the program, catering and supervision. If you have any questions about the camp, please don't hesitate to ask.

If you wish to discuss any matter regarding your child/children's education, please contact via email at Paul.Jude460@schools.sa.edu.au or make an appointment through the campus office.

Positive education = positive future

Regards
Paul

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

NAPLAN

It is pleasing to report that almost all of our year 3, 5, 7 and 9 students participated in the NAPLAN tests in Week 2. I was able to observe a number of cohorts sitting particular tests and I was very pleased to note the attitude displayed by our students. The tests were taken seriously to the point that the Year 7 and 9 students were seated in a formal exam setting for each test; which we believe will assist them in future years, when they are sitting formal examinations as part of their SACE studies. The students generally appeared confident and positive about the assessments and most were able to inform me that they believed they had performed quite well with the point in time assessment tasks which are all directly related to the Australian Curriculum programs they have been involved with on a daily basis.

EARLY YEARS READING AND WRITING PROGRESS

We have also been pleased with our most recent analysis of the progress being made by our primary students at each of the R-6 campuses in the priority areas of reading and writing. The explicit approach to teaching reading and writing, which includes an emphasis on improving each student's vocabulary, is certainly proving to be successful and this is being reflected by enhanced growth rates being recorded by our students in these domains.

PARENT TEACHER INTERVIEWS

It was great to see so many parents at the 7-12 campus last Wednesday for Parent Teacher Interviews. Thanks to the many parents who provided positive feedback also about these interviews, which were held in our new Science / Home Economics building. These interviews follow those which were held at our primary campuses in Term 1. Regardless of the age or year level of our children, such interviews are important, as they help to ensure we can strengthen the partnerships between school and home which ultimately helps our parents, teachers and students.

News from the house

On Tuesdays, the Middle Primary come down to our class to join us for maths. This week we gave them a challenge—first to make a perfect square out of an A4 piece of paper using only 1 fold and one cut. When we had achieved that goal, we then used the perfect square to make a puzzle for our partners. To make the pieces we could only use 3 folds and then cut on those lines. We had fun putting our puzzles together and even found it difficult to put our own back together!

Jacqui's Journal

Some of you may have seen the ABC's report about the Drumbeat program. This program is statistically proven to assist with social skills, conflict resolution and feelings of acceptance and belonging. Courtesy of funding from SMG (my employer) and the 7-12 Strathalbyn Campus, I will soon be a fully qualified Drumbeat instructor and we will kick off the program here at 'The Creek'. Once I've completed my training each course will run over 10 weeks and our plan is to run it 2-3 times per year. Keep your ears to the ground for more information. One thing I do know is that this course is an amazing opportunity for the school and will play a fantastic part in holistic development of the students.
